6. Discussion with the District of Fall Creek School Board to Explore Possible Collaboration Ideas Between the School District and the Village: The roundtable discussion centered on ways that the school district and the village can combine efforts to promote the village and its assets so that people will want to make Fall Creek their home. Some of the items discussed were:
 - banners that are being purchased by the school to be installed on the streets
 - T-shirts available for purchase at the school
 - researching ways to make the village more attractive to potential residents
 - school enrollment and the impact it has on the community
 - additional educational opportunities (Summer School, Beaver Creek, Public Library, etc.)
 - summer rec program expansion, including reintroduction of baseball and other possible sports

The decision was made to meet again on the 1st Monday of March (March 7, 2016) to continue the pattern of brainstorming on ideas that can be worked on throughout the year.
7. Adjourn
 - MOTION (Jacobson/Steinke) @ 7:40 p.m. PASSED, without negative vote.

Renee Roemhild, Clerk-Treasurer
